DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: On lines 3 - 4, the recitation " an user information area " appears to require revision to - - a user information area - -.

Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: On lines 2 - 3, the recitation " the initialization act the information patterns representing control information are written " requires review and revision. The Examiner recommends changing the above recitation to - - the initialization act of writing information patterns representing control information is performed - -.

Claim 4 is objected to because claim 4 depends upon and falls with claim 1.

Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: On line 4, the recitation " an user information area " appears to require revision to - - a user information area - -. Also, on line 23, the recitation " the control is adapted " appears to require revision to - - the controller is adapted - -. In addition, on line 25, the recitation " after the writing patterns " appears to require revision to - - after writing patterns - -. In a similar manner, on lines 26 - 27, the recitation " before the writing information patterns " appears to require revision to - - before writing information patterns - -.

Claim 6 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 5 recites a limitation which is already included on line 18 of claim 1. The Examiner recommends canceling claim 6.

Claim 8 is objected to because claim 8 depends upon and falls with claim 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 9 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, the Specification does not support the method acts of "reading the user information recorded on the second layer directly after a layer jump from the first information layer to the second information layer; and after the reading act, finalizing the writing of the control information" (see claim 9) or a controller configured to "read the user information recorded on the second layer directly after a layer jump from the first information layer to the second information layer; and after reading [the] user information recorded on the second layer, finalize the writing of the control information". Notice that the Specification only supports the method of claim 1 and apparatus of claim 5 at page 3, lines 15 - 23 and page 7, lines 1 - 10. In addition, notice that there is only support for writing control information in a control area of a second information layer to allow reproduction of the second layer. In other words, a method or an apparatus that performs a method in which the user information recorded on the second layer is actually read is not described in the Specification.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 1 would be allowable over the prior art of record if the objection to claim 1 set forth above is overcome

Claim 2 would be allowable over the prior art of record if the objections to claims 1 and 2 set forth above are overcome.

Claim 4 would be allowable over the prior art of record if the objection to claim 1 set forth above is overcome. Accordingly, claim 4 falls with claim 1.

Claim 5 would be allowable over the prior art of record if the objections to claim 5 set forth above are overcome.

Claim 6 is not indicated as allowable because of the objection to claim 6 set forth above.

Claim 8 would be allowable over the prior art of record if the objections to claim 5 set forth above are overcome. Accordingly, claim 8 falls with claim 5.

Claim 9 is not indicated as allowable because of the 112 1st paragraph rejection set forth above with respect to claim 9.

Claim 10 is not indicated as allowable because claim 10 is objected to as being dependent upon rejected base claim 9.

Claim 11 is not indicated as allowable because claim 11 is objected to as being dependent upon rejected base claim 9.

Claim 12 is not indicated as allowable because of the 112 1st paragraph rejection set forth above with respect to claim 12.

Claim 13 is not indicated as allowable because claim 13 is objected to as being dependent upon rejected base claim 12.

Claim 14 is not indicated as allowable because claim 14 is objected to as being dependent upon rejected base claim 12.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on 12/14/2010 with respect to pending claims 1, 2, 4 – 6, and 8 have been fully considered and are persuasive. In addition, Applicant's arguments with respect to pending claims 9 – 14 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
